DIED AT CAMP COLT.

George M. Aubrey is Third St. Albans Man to Die There.

St. Albans, Oct. 4.—News was received here yesterday afternoon of the death of George M. Aubrey of this city at Camp Colt, Gettysburg, Pa., from Spanish influenza. Young Aubrey, who was an employee of the job department of the Messenger company about six years, enlisted last July and left for the mechanical school at Springfield, Mass. He went to Camp Colt about Sept. 1. He survived by his wife. Their marriage took place Nov. 28 last. He was about 22 years old. Mr. Aubrey is the third St. Albans man who has succumbed to the dread disease at Camp Colt.

THREE DESERTERS ARRESTED.

Were Taken into Custody at East Berkshire.

St. Albans, Oct. 4.—Three soldiers, Michael Langley, Henry McCulloch and Thomas E. McLain, Canadian subjects, who were taken into custody at East Berkshire Wednesday by immigration officers from this city and lodged in the Franklin county jail here, have been taken to St. Johns, Que. The men acknowledged that they were deserters and did not seem much disturbed over their plight. When arrested in East Berkshire they were leisurely walking around the village.

DON'T ENDURE RHEUMATIC PAIN! HERE'S QUICK RELIEF FOR YOU

Stop the pain! Give me relief! That's what you want when you're hurt. That's what you get with Sloan's Liniment. It not only "kills pain," but does it quickly, without delay.

If you're tormented by Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sprains, Bruises, Backache, and body or nerve pain—just see how quickly a little Sloan's Liniment gives relief. The very first application rests and comforts. Seems to reach right down to the seat of the trouble, warming and easing the nerves and tissues. You can almost feel the inflammation, swelling or stiffness subside, as the pain grows less and less.

You don't even have to wait to rub in Sloan's Liniment. It penetrates, and its clear, clean liquid can be poured right on the skin without staining. Get a generous size bottle from your druggist today.

Shea's Shoe Store was open again today after being closed on account of sickness of the proprietor and help.

The prophetic lectures started in K. of P. hall by Evangelist F. S. Hartwell will be discontinued till further notice on account of the epidemic.

Rev. Mr. Crowland wishes to state that he conducted the Charles Duncan funeral at the graveside and not at Mr. Duncan's late home.

The G. C. I. A. rooms will be closed until further notice. Anyone having any special business can call James Smart, 16 Forsythe place. Tel. 529-J.

Seaman Eugene Loranger of the U. S. navy has been passing a brief furlough with his parents, Alderman and Mrs. A. J. Loranger of Summer street.

Private Joseph Michael of Camp Devens arrived in the city this morning, having been called here by the death of his brother, Jerry Michael of Prospect street.

Private George Fowle, who is stationed at Fort Strong, has arrived in the city for a brief furlough, having been called here by the death of his brother, Alexander Fowle, jr.

Joseph Merlo and his brother, Delio Merlo, whose critical illness made it necessary to close their store on North Main street, are steadily progressing toward recovery.

Through the J. J. Dasher Real Estate agency, C. D. Palmer of Washington has sold his farm to Rudolph Anderson of Barre, taking in exchange two houses of three tenements. Consideration in the deal was $5,700.

Those in charge of the hospital auxiliary in the Vinitia club rooms wish to thank those who so promptly and generously responded to the call for coats and bedding. The response was greatly appreciated. Per order the committee.

Among the doctors who came here from Burlington to assist local physicians in their attempts to check the epidemic are Dr. C. P. Dalton, secretary of the state board of health, who is dividing his time between this city and Montpelier, Dr. C. A. Pense, Dr. J. N. Jenne, Dr. B. J. A. Bombard and Dr. A. Shea.

The body of Samuel D'Agostino of The Northern, proprietor of a North Main street barber shop, who died of the grip, was taken to New York over the Central Vermont railroad this morning at 12:05. Because of illness Mrs. D'Agostino was unable to accompany the remains. Interment of the remains will take place in New York.

Private David Morgan of the tank corps, who is stationed at Camp Colt, Gettysburg, Pa., has returned to the colors, after having been detailed to accompany to Barre the body of Private Ralph Sease of Second street, who died of the grip. Private Morgan, who visited at his home on Ayers street during his leave, remained until after the funeral of the deceased soldier, which was held yesterday afternoon.

Alexander Ironside, secretary of the state branch of the American Federation of Labor and president of the local Central Labor union, and Angus McDonald, secretary of the Barre C. L. U., left the city this forenoon for Boston, where they are to attend a labor conference in which some of the most active labor men in New England are to participate. Gov. McCall of Massachusetts is slated as one of the speakers, and President James Duncan of the granitecutters' union will be present.

The quarterly meeting due to be held by the ladies' aid of the Barre City hospital on Oct. 4 was held by the officers of the aid at the home of Mrs. H. J. Slayton Monday, Sept. 30, on account of the present situation of the influenza epidemic in Barre and to attend more quickly to the needs of the hospital. The treasurer's report showed $467.92 on hand, which amount was voted to be turned over to the buyers' committee, to be used in their judgment for hospital needs.

Conversion of the mayor's office at city hall into a fruit depot for the benefit of the sick has proven most acceptable to many stricken families. So far as possible the fruit, which includes both oranges and lemons, is sold at cost, but if it is shown that needy families cannot afford to pay even the cost price, two lemons and two oranges are allowed each patient. Atto Mariana, who has been managing the Vermont Fruit store during the illness of the proprietors, is in charge of the municipal fruit stand. The stock was procured at wholesale prices, and an attempt will be made to replenish it before the present supply is exhausted.

A rug burning before the hearth in the house at 47 Granite street was responsible for a general fire alarm this morning at 3 o'clock, the call being sounded from box 15, near the corner of Granite and River streets. The house is occupied by Battisti Fumigali, who conducts a bakery across the street. The rug had been placed before the kitchen range to dry. Regulars and volunteers responded to the call, and all of the fire fighting apparatus was ready for the blaze, but an early investigation disclosed its trivial nature, and the apparatus was recalled. The all-out signal was given soon afterward. Very little damage resulted.

A heavy halo of suspicion and uncertainty hedges around the fire which destroyed the barn and outbuildings on the farm of George Hathaway, near the East Montpelier station Wednesday evening. The fire occurred while Mr. Hathaway was milking, and while neighbors quickly came to his assistance, he had barely time to loosen the cattle. Yesterday suspicious circumstances were reported to State's Attorney Earle R. Davis, with the result that early in the day Mrs. Hathaway was arrested by Deputy Sheriff H. J. Slayton, on a charge of arson. She was brought to Barre to be arraigned before Magistrate H. W. Scott in municipal court, but before the hearing the state's attorney engaged two physicians to make a mental examination of the woman. Although it is said that evidence in the hands of the state's attorney points to mental aberration in the respondent, the physicians, after completing their examination, did not desire to have her committed. At the hearing the woman was placed under bail of $1,000 for her appearance in county court. The security was furnished.

STAR ATHLETE DEAD.

Edward B. Moran of Brattleboro Died at Hingham, Mass.

Brattleboro, Oct. 4.—Edward B. Moran, aged 19, second-class seaman, son of Postmaster and Mrs. M. J. Moran of this town, died yesterday in the naval training camp at Hingham, Mass., of influenza. The body was brought here last night, accompanied by Postmaster Moran, who went to Hingham Tuesday.

Seaman Moran was the star athlete of the Brattleboro high school and had won places in meets of some of the best preparatory schools in New England. He had served as captain of the track and football teams of the high school and was president of his class, the class of 1910, until he enlisted in the navy two months ago. He leaves his parents, two brothers and a sister, all of this town.
